

Chicago doesn't like the way her Congressmen have been treated with regard to chairmanships. None of the three got a first position which is considered "scented courtesy."

Mr. Blaine entered the Maine Legislature in 1829, twenty-two years ago, and from that time till last Monday, when he left the office of Secretary of State, he had not been out of office, it is said, hardly a single day.

France has an army of 470,000, on a peace footing Germany 400,000, and Russia, 787,000, while the United States can boast of about 25,000. France pays out a hundred millions a year to her soldiers, Germany one hundred and forty millions, and the United States about thirty millions.

There is general good feeling in Chicago over the nomination and confirmation of Jesse Spaulding as collector of customs for that port. Chicago has reason to be proud of the honor conferred upon that gentleman. He was originally a Grant man, but when Garfield was nominated he was thoroughly a Garfield man.

The Evening Wisconsin gives one of the ex-editors of the Gazette the following personal: "A. M. Thomson, poet, politician and paragraphist on the Chicago press, is in the city. He is in exceedingly good humor over the fight between the Sentinel and Republican, having been, as he says, 'frozen out' of the former concern."

For some time there has been a good deal of idle money in the State treasury to the credit of the several trust funds. This money has not been drawing interest, and a day or two ago the commissioner of public lands under whose control are the trust funds, decided to invest the money in United States bonds, and therefore withdrew from the treasury for the purchase of extended sixes drawing three and one-half per cent. interest, the total of $295,000. Of the sum thus invested, $130,000 was taken from the school fund, $100,000 from the normal school fund, $30,000 from the university fund and $35,000 from the agricultural college fund.

On Tuesday afternoon an important freight meeting was held at the office of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad company, in Milwaukee, Tuesday afternoon, by the freight agents of the C. M. & St. P. and C. & N. W. roads. The object was to establish rates at all common points in Southern Wisconsin, including the points to be opened on the Chicago & Northwestern's new air line from Madison to Milwaukee. The common territory in Southern Wisconsin includes Prairie du Chien, Janesville, Madison and Beloit. The new rates established show a general reduction, and will be published in the course of the next few days. They will go into effect January 1st, 1882.

A story has been started by General Joseph E. Johnston that Jeff Davis had in his possession over two millions of dollars in specie belonging to the Confederacy when Richmond was evacuated, for which he has never given an account. He says another Confederate officer, Colonel Paul, who saw the specie, declares he counted twenty wagon loads of it. Another Confederate, who also saw it, says he followed Davis to Charlotte, and counted twenty wagon loads as they passed over a creek. General Beauregard is said by Johnston to estimate the total at two millions and a half. This is a snug little sum to be spirited away, as Johnston charges. What could Mr. Davis do with twenty wagon loads of specie? He would have considerable difficulty in finding it, and keeping it hidden for nearly twenty years.

As might be expected, there is some grumbling going on among certain members of Congress because they did not get what they wanted. The dispatches say the anti-Grant men are kicking because Speaker Keifer gave so much to the stalwarts, saying Robeson and Don Cameron had too much to do with the make-up of the committee. The Democrats are also vexed because Randall, who is high protective, is put on the Ways and Means committee as a representative of the Democracy. The Ways and Means committee is doubtless high tariff, as it has three Pennsylvanians upon it. Ohio men are mad because they did not get more. The attempt to snub Kasson was defeated by giving him second on the Ways and Means committee.

It seems that every Republican member of Congress whether he had been in the House two or four years, wanted a chairmanship. Unfortunately there are only 42 standing committees, while there are 117 Republican members.

There are many humorous criticisms made on some of the recent appointments to the President's cabinet. It has been suggested that the President should have taken living men in his cabinet, and that he might as well go to the ruins of Troy for cabinet officers as to take up Frelinghuysen and Howe. It is true these gentlemen are between 60 and 70, but their age need hardly prevent them from making good cabinet officers. Of course, Mr. Howe will not adopt as vigorous a policy as James did, but it is safe to say that he will manage the office well, and with Frank Hatton as First Assistant Postmaster General, there is no danger that star route thieves will steal another march on the government. It may be as well to say here, that President Arthur verily believes in old men for counsel, as the four members of the cabinet recently appointed are nearing on to 70. Attorney General Brewster and Postmaster General Howe, are each 65, and Secretary of State Frelinghuysen and Secretary of Treasury Folger, are each 61.

Here is an editorial item from the Chicago Journal:

Timothy O. Howe, of Wisconsin, the new Postmaster General, is 65 years ago. He was formerly a United States Senator, but notably distinguished himself last year by being an advocate of a third term for General Grant, while nearly all the other Republicans in Wisconsin were anti-Grant. All those other Republicans now must take back seats in order that old Timothy may be rewarded with "a prize in the lottery of assassination."

A guess would not be wide of the mark if one would say that the above is from the pen of our old friend, Hon. A. M. Thomson, who is now doing editorial work for the Journal, and there are many Republicans in Wisconsin who will not endorse what he says in the way of connecting the name of Mr. Howe with the assassination. It is true that all, or nearly all, of the new members of President Arthur's cabinet are what are called "stalwarts." They were favorable to General Grant for a third term, and took sides with Senator Conkling in his break with President Garfield. But that those opposed to Grant, or rather those who did not vote for him and favored his renomination, are driven to the rear that the Grant admirers may be rewarded with "a prize in the lottery of assassination," is a statement of cruel injustice to President Arthur.

WISCONSIN AND THE COMMITTEES.

Wisconsin figures conspicuously among the chairmanships of the standing committees of the House of Representatives. Congressman Williams, of this district, has been given the chairmanship of the committee on Foreign Affairs, which is one of the most important committees connected with the lower house of Congress. To be placed at the head of that committee is a compliment over which Mr. Williams may justly feel proud.

The chairmanship on public lands was given to ex-Lieutenant Thad C. Board. This is a committee which must pass upon some very important question in relation to the public lands. But that is a subject with which Congressman Board is familiar, and therefore the chairmanship has been placed in good hands. The committee on the Pacific Railway over which Senator Sawyer presided for several years and while he was in the House, will have for its chairman Congressman Hazelton, of the third district. This is a compliment to Mr. Hazelton which is well deserved.

Wisconsin has certainly done well in capturing chairmanships, but after all no better than the State ought to have done. The positions which Williams, Board, and Hazelton occupy in the House of Representatives, entitle them to the honors which Speaker Keifer has conferred upon them.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Paul sang to a ten thousand dollar house in Philadelphia on Tuesday evening.

James G. Blaine will deliver the eulogy on the late President Garfield before the joint convention of both houses of Congress to be held next month.

Mr. Sullivan, the author of Pinafore, has gone to Egypt for his health, where he will remain all winter. Miss Sarah Barnhart received a shower of pickled cucumbers at Oleska by the people who did not appreciate her acting. This vegetable was nearest at hand as the pickles were sold on the street outside the theatre to the frequenters of the gallery.

The father of General Daniel E. Sickles is 92 years old, and has a fortune of twelve millions. He was married on Wednesday to a Mrs. Sawyer, who is 52 years younger than her husband.

Another fall from affluence to poverty is that of Daniel H. Haskell, of San Francisco, who in early days managed the banking-house of Adams & Co., and had an income of $70,000 a year. He died the other day in an almshouse, a bloated, filthy pauper.

Leopold Boyver, who ten years ago went from St. Louis to New York with $50,000, sank so low as to forge a note for $1,000. On being taken to police headquarters he strangled himself in his cell. Failing to keep up a patent right agency on Broadway, he had of late years been living by his wits, and found plenty of Jerseymen on whom to practice.

Palpitation of the Heart.

J. M. Night, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "When I first commenced using your Bruncock Blood Bitters I was troubled with fluttering and palpitation of the heart. I felt weak and languid, with a numbness of the limbs; since using, my heart has not troubled me and the numbing sensation is all gone." Price $1.00, trial size 10 cents.

THE COMMITTEES.

The Positions Filled by Wisconsin Members.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 21.—Wisconsin fared very well in the distribution of committee appointments, and the members from that State have every reason to congratulate themselves that they were the first to discover Mr. Keifer as a speakership candidate, and earnestly and successfully espoused his cause. It is a matter of current gossip that Keifer was first suggested as a speakership candidate in a series of dinners given here last winter, at which the Wisconsin members who have chairmanships to-day, and the Pacific coast Republicans, all of whom have chairmanships to-day, were the prominent guests. However that may be, Mr. Williams, of Wisconsin, in chairman of the foreign affairs committee, Hazelton chairman of Pacific railroads, Board chairman of public lands, while Caswell has a position on the appropriations committee, which is regarded as equivalent to a chairmanship, and is also fourth on patents, and Gaenther has the important assignment to the committee on commerce, something unusual for a new member, and Judge Humphreys has a position on the judiciary committee. In fact, Wisconsin, with her six chairmanships and other assignments which are equal to three more, while Illinois, with her thirteen Republican members, has but three chairmanships, not any of which is of the first rank. The following are the Wisconsin assignments in detail: Williams, chairman foreign affairs, fourth on expenditures in State department; Caswell, sixth on appropriations; Hazelton, fourth on patents; Hazelton, chairman of Pacific railroads, second on elections, third on private claims; Gaenther, fifth on judiciary; Board, chairman of public lands, third on expenditures in the postoffice department. Of Wisconsin Democrats, Ducrest gets on foreign affairs; Briggs on military affairs.

WISCONSIN REPUBLICANS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The Wisconsin Republicans met last night at the rooms of Colonel Enoch Totten in the Columbia law school building to transact adjourned business. There was more than an average attendance, and the members were very enthusiastic over the recognition of Wisconsin in the appointment of ex-Senator Howe as Postmaster General. After a fitting expression of enthusiasm for the honor conferred on the State the election of officers for the current year was preceded by the election of Enoch Totten as elected president, his assistant, Edwin M. Trenchell was chosen vice president, Ed. E. Town second vice president, Ed. F. Gleason was elected secretary, and Dr. J. L. Little, treasurer. C. G. Heath and D. J. Waters were made delegates to the national association. In view of the action of the President in selecting Senator Howe as postmaster general, a committee of five was appointed to consider a proper method of expressing the appreciation of the honor conferred, consisting of W. E. Colladay, Everett B. Sturges, J. H. Allen, C. G. Heath, and O. E. Gleason. The meeting was very enthusiastic, and was characterized by the energy and force of the young and active members representing the State in the capital. The infusion of new blood and the evident interest of the young men promises to make the association as prominent in the future as it was in the past.

A BASE INGRATE.

The Wretch Guiteau in his Natural Mood.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 21.—The presentation added to its pile of damaging evidence, the opinions of two experts in the Guiteau trial to-day, to the effect that the assassin is a sane and responsible man. Drs. Hamilton, of New York, and Worcester, of Salem, Mass., are unimpeachable witnesses, and what they said had much weight with the jury. This is especially true of what Dr. Worcester said, since he was originally summoned by the defense on a statement that he believed the assassin sane, and has changed his mind upon examination and observation of him in the jail and in the court. As is always the case when the current of evidence flows against him, Guiteau became, early in the day, very much excited, and continued to grow much more excited, until at the close of the proceedings he was almost beside himself. Of course he blackguarded the witnesses, as he always does. He called them liars and knaves. He referred to them as though they were common per jurers, and never worried of flinging in Worcester's face the assertion that he was to be paid $500 for his testimony. But the major portion of his abuse he reserved for poor Scoville, who was pronounced, with aggravating iteration, "an ass," a "consummate jackass," an "old fool," and "an idiot lacking the wit of a ten-year-old school boy." The assassin accused him of self-conceit and love of notoriety, and asserted that, if he had not "crawled into the case" because of these qualities, John D. Townsend and Judge Magruder, together with Charley Reed and himself, would have won it for the defense. Scoville, for once, manifested annoyance at the vilification poured upon him, and every once in a while Guiteau shouted and stormed and lashed out, and at last, one day, and left the court room at 3 o'clock completely exhausted. At one time Scoville choked up and actually shed tears. Mrs. Scoville and John W. Guiteau saw clearly how damaging the evidence of to-day was, and so did Scoville, despite his protestations to the contrary, and they walked away, after the court adjourned, in the rain with sad faces and sadder hearts, looking back as they crossed the street to see the miserable object of their affectionate devotion led through the lines of spectators to the dripping van, surrounded by his "body guard."

FREIGHT RATE TINKERS.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 21.—An adjourned meeting of the Wisconsin Freight Agents' Association was held in the general offices of the Milwaukee, Lake Shore & Western railway to-day, T. H. Malone, of the Wisconsin Central, presiding, and Louis Blankenhorn acting as secretary. There were present Messrs. C. G. Eddy, of the Chicago & Northwestern, E. J. Blaine, D. W. Keyes, A. J. McCormick, J. B. Last, and H. F. Whitcomb. A general discussion of matters of general interest was indulged in, and the following changes in Wisconsin classifications were agreed upon: Apples in car loads of 140 barrels or more, weighing 150 pounds per barrel, will hereafter rate one-third more than the published tariff per 100 pounds in car loads. This does not change the rate from the old basis, which is the same as on flour, pork and ham. Hams and shoulders in casks or barrels, shipped by the carload will be classed fifth class freight hereafter instead of fourth class. This classification committee has not as yet completed its labors in regard to changes of classification, and it was proposed to make it the same as the raised joint tariffs. The meeting adjourned until the third Tuesday in June.

Miraculous Diet.

"Your Spring Blossom is a success. I certainly think its effects are wonderful. All the dyspeptic symptoms I complained of have vanished; my wife is also enthusiastic in praise of it; she was disgusted by blotches and pimples on her face, and had a continuous headache. She is all right now, and all unsightly eruptions have gone. You may refer any doubting parties to me."

NEW OFFICIALS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The President sent the following nominations to the Senate: Pierre C. Van Wyck, of New York, to be Superintendent of the Assay office at New York City; Jesse Spaulding, to be Collector of the Customs, district of Chicago; Alonzo J. Edgerton, of Minnesota, to be Chief Justice of the Territory of Dakota, and Samuel A. Bagley, to be postmaster of Laporte, Indiana. The Senate confirmed the following nominations: Alonzo J. Edgerton to be Chief Justice of Dakota; Jesse Spaulding, Collector of Customs of Chicago; Pierre C. Van Wyck, Superintendent of Assay office, New York; J. B. Eckfolt, Assayer of the Philadelphia mint.

"I dees I can." "Well, what did the minister do to you?" "He shoved up my sleeve and stuck a knife in my arm."

IT'S NONSENSE—to suffer with dyspepsia or pleurisy, or inflammation of the kidneys, when by going to the Grand Hotel or to Stearns & Baker's drugstore, you can get a bottle of E. S. Reynolds' wonderful discovery, which will give immediate relief, and effect a permanent cure. If not, your money will be refunded. Also, a sure cure for catarrh of the head, go to Stearns & Baker's for sample bottles, free.

A VERITABLE "horn of plenty" for the holidays—the well-filled store of Archie Reid.

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE at auction—Having decided to quit house-keeping, will sell at auction, at the residence now occupied by me, being the East half of the Barnes block house, on Court street, my household furniture, all in want of house furniture will have a chance to buy at their own prices. The sale will commence at 1 o'clock, Thursday afternoon, December 28th, 1891. The house will be well warmed.

R. L. COLVIN,
G. W. WHEELER, Auctioneer.

THOMAS Schofield, aged 91 years walked nine miles to renew his subscription to a New London paper. It is the general impression among publishers that there are a number of subscribers who are waiting until they are 91 years old to come in and pay for their paper.—Harbury News.
